Scope and Content

Materials related to the work of the Franciscan friars in the Philippines. After the death of friars in China, and the changes in Chinese government in the 1940s, the friars doing missionary work in China moved to the Philippines. The Philippine Province became its own Province in the global Franciscan order in the 1980s. Materials in this collection include correspondence, photos, slides, negatives, reports, newsletters, and newsprint.
